School News Week 10 Term 4, 2014

Last School News for 2014

There will be a School News next week which is planned to go home with students on Tuesday.

Change to School Party

We have had to change our original plans for the K-6 party on the last day of the school year, next Wednesday. The caravan park pool is not available. Thanks to the generosity and community spirit of Liz Estens we are able to use the pool at the Crossroads. Liz, you are a legend! Our thanks also to Robin and Craig Dowsett who have offered to transport all to and from the venue at no cost. A special Christmas present for all parents/caregivers in readiness of your care of our students every minute, every hour and every day of the upcoming vacation. Before they come home on Wednesday afternoon I am going to pump them all full of red cordial!!!! – Enjoy!

I will be cooking a sausage lunch and providing watermelon, ice cream and sprinkles and the aforementioned cordial. If your child isn't going to eat these, then it is your responsibility to provide lunch for them. They should bring recess as normal. Please complete and return the permission note to the school asap.

Year 6 Farewell

Last night was a great success with good company, lots of laughs, and bit of gentle roasting and “razzing” of the guest of honour, School Captain Georgia Peart. Lots of nice things were said and gifts presented to Georgia. We wish Georgia well for her secondary education in Sydney. She has been a great school citizen, school leader and an asset to Tooraweenah Public School for the seven years she has been here. She will be sorely missed.

Our thanks to Leonie Watt for the wonderful cake in school colours and with Georgia's name piped upon it.

As Georgia was the only Year 6 student, her grandparents, Barry and Elizabeth Frost and Rod and Margaret Peart were invited to attend. Grandparents and extended family members are a huge part of the Tooraweenah P.S school community “family” and play an important role in each student's life. SO, I am starting a new tradition. For next year's Year 6 Farewell, all parents and grandparents will be invited to attend with a gala event in our Multi-Purpose Room. There are about 50 people on the list. I have the list. I'm checking it twice, seeing who's been naughty or nice.

Presentation Night 2014

Just a reminder that Presentation Night will take place in the Tooraweenah War Memorial Hall, tomorrow evening commencing at 7.30pm sharp. Could all bring a plate (preferably with something on it) to share after the event.

Goodbye and good luck

Thursday is the last day for Madeline “Maddy” Potts. Maddy will be heading off to sunny Queensland and enrolling at her new school for 2015 and beyond. Our best wishes go with Maddy and Sue. Make sure you come back and see us all sometime.

Numbers and classes for 2015

With Georgia and Maddy going, we drop to 27 but welcome Lily Smith and Maddi Peart to Kindergarten bringing us back up to 29, our current number. There are “rumours” circulating about the possible return of some students and the chance of another enrolment in Kindergarten. I have no official verification of these.

At the present time, the structure for next year will be:

Kindergarten/Year 1 = 9 = Mrs Smith

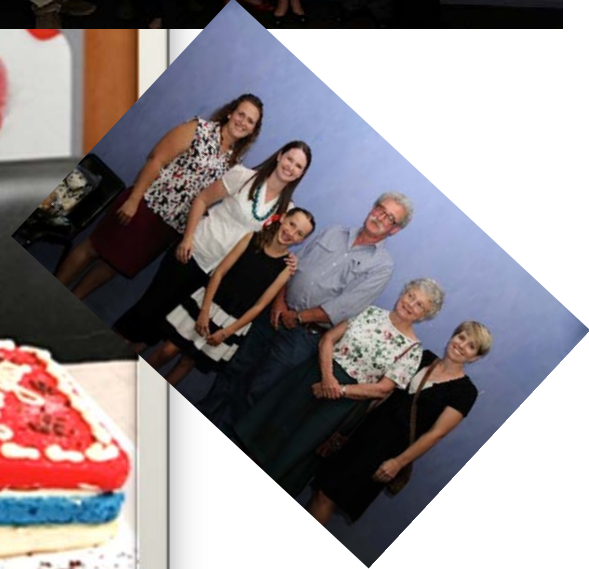

Year 2/3 = 8 = Mrs Jenkin

Years 4/5/6 = 12 = Mr Hare

See you at Presentation Night
