Carols on Norton and Royal Far West Moorambilla Tour

Congratulations to Tom McDonell who has been offered a place on Moorambilla's Carols on Norton and Royal Far West Tour. Tom will be participating in this tour, being the last for the year. He will be joining Leichardt Espresso Chorus and the Inner West Children's Chorus to sing at Carols on Norton on Sunday 16 December and then to perform at the official opening of the Royal Far West new multimillion dollar building.

Open Day

We are looking forward to showcasing our school on our Open Day next Tuesday 27th November at 10:30am. Parents are encouraged to come along and help to show new families and community members what our school offers. Please extend a warm invitation to anyone you think may be interested in attending. There will be information sessions from 10:30am, morning tea at 11:00am and open classrooms from 11:30am.

Presentation Night and Concert

The Presentation Night and Concert invitation is attached to the newsletter. Please pass on our invitation to extended family, friends and community members.

John Fleming Excursion

On Monday 26th November, students and teachers will travel to Gilgandra Public School for the next visit from John Fleming, mentor and coach in literacy and numeracy explicit instruction.

The staff professional learning session is scheduled for 8am, therefore we are asked parents to make arrangements for their children to be transported to Gilgandra Public School in the morning by 9am. Teachers will transport students back to school in time for afternoon buses.

Swim School

During Swim School, Week 8, 3rd-7th December, we will take the opportunity while in Gilgandra to visit Coo-ee Lodge and Windmill Cottage one day each to spread some Christmas cheer and entertain with some songs.

EOI for Cleaner at Tooraweenah PS

If you are interested in a job as a cleaner here at Tooraweenah Public School, there is currently an opportunity for you. An expression of interest (EOI) form is available at the school. The job is 28 hours per fortnight (2hrs 51 mins per day). For more information, contact the school and we can pass on an information pack including job description and application form.

Lions Club Camp-Lincola

During October, Information Packages were sent home with 10-12 year old students regarding a Lincola School Holiday camp on 13th-19th January 2019 for drought affected students. There is no cost for this camp as it is sponsored by the Lions Club. Please the school office on 68481073 or phone Col Ryan, Gulargambone Lions on 0429 071053 for any further information.

Bendigo Bank Technology Grant

The Gilgandra Branch of Bendigo Bank is supporting schools in the Gilgandra area with a very generous grant of $40,000 towards the purchase of creative technology purchases. Tooraweenah Public School is excited to be part of the project which will be lead by Chantel Chandler, Gilgandra Public School. We will be attending initial meetings next Monday to aid in planning for the commencement of the delivery of the project next year.

Pie Drive

The Tooraweenah P&C Association are holding a Pie Drive fundraiser for pick up in early December. Keep an eye out in next week's newsletter for how to place your order.
