NEWS

New Table

Many thanks to Gavin Duff for making and delivering this amazing table for our student eating area. As you can see from the smiling faces, the table has been a hit! We greatly appreciate all the time and effort by Gavin in building this for our students.

Caring Hearts Community Quilters

The wonderful Caring Hearts Quilters Group who came to visit and deliver kindness to our community through the drought, also donated a collection of second hand books for adults in our community. Parents and community members are welcome to drop into school and select from the collection. We would like to encourage exchanging the books as they are read either here at school or to the CWA Street Library initiative. The books are located in the book cases in the Assembly Room (adjacent to the office.) Come in and have a look!

Swim School

With an unseasonably cool start to the week, students from Eumungerie and Tooraweenah Public Schools have been engaging in learn to swim, stroke correction and lifesaving skills during swim scheme. Our older students have set a wonderful example in participating in the lessons in a motivated and respectful way during the cool conditions. It is great to see student's skills and fitness in the water building every day.

Transition to High School

After swimming lessons today, Darcy Holland spent the afternoon at Gilgandra High School as part of his Transition to High School. Darcy had a tour of the school and was able to join in on some classes as well as meet with the Principal Mr Neal Reed and 2020 Year 7 Advisor Ms Nicola Murphy.
